Learning Communities

From current students in our Learning Communities:

"Learning Communities are basically the all-around action-packed, family-oriented houses on campus." - Kyle

Computer Science Learning Community

"The CSLC is a great place. The average number of computers to residents is two to one." - Daniel

First-Year Experience

"FYE is an incredible community of students that helped my transition into college life. The people you meet and the connections you make will stay with you the rest of your life." - Zack

Forest Resources and Environmental Science Learning Community

"Treehouse is an amazing place to be because you get to live with all your friends from classes. Everyone has similar interests, which always makes for a crazy fun time. (Yay Treehouse!)" - Jillian

International House

"I-House is a very accepting and welcoming environment where we learn about our cultures and nations." - Haki

Leadership Learning Community

"The LLC is exactly what it sounds like. It's a place where students learn how to be better leaders. We get involved on campus and in the community, and everyone gets a chance to take charge and introduce their ideas and goals." - Christine

Summit House (Formerly known as Healthy Living House)

"You'll meet your best friends for life in the Summit. There's always something to do and we have a lot of fun doing it. The Summit is a fun, active group of students living life to its fullest." - Michelle E.

Visual and Performing Arts Learning Community

"We explore the arts, create the future and grow together as a family at Michigan Tech." - Michelle F.
